Catriceology's Irresistible Bio Transformation

The Real Woman behind the Curtain

Christine is a woman with an edge who used to be a corporate climber managing multi-million dollar projects until she realized she wasn't living her wildest dreams. She fought a long, hard battle with her inner gremlins to overcome her doubts, fears and insecurities while pursuing her dreams. She knew there was more outside the walls of Corporate America and she craved it and longed to be free to live life on her own terms. It was no easy feat but by stretching her faith, changing her self-beliefs and taking inspired action, Christine made quantum leaps personally and professionally and now lives the life that was once just a vision.

She is a recovered perfectionist now totally loving her life as a mother and living her dream as an entrepreneur big time! Taking the leap from leaving her job to living her dream has allowed her to travel the world whenever she chooses. Christine has traveled so much and experienced the joy of meeting new people from all walks of life that she is truly a citizen of planet earth. She has lived in London, Paris, and currently in Barcelona with her loving husband and four wonderful children. Because Christine had the courage to boldly walk into her dreams, she can create and live a lifestyle that feeds her soul, serves the world and provides financial security for her and her family.

She knows what works and what does not work in business and uses her story, passion and expertise to help women give birth to and live their wildest dreams. Christine teaches women exactly how to step outside of their comfort zone, turn struggles into possibilities and transform their vision into dreams come true. She is known as the Dream Midwife and loves helping women turn "I can't" into "Oh, Yes I can! I am not afraid to and I am fearless" by teaching them how to release their unique, innovative edge to manifest the desires of their hearts.

Published Author

Christine is the author of These Dreams Are Made for Walking, an inspirational book that helps women step into their real power to unleash the courage and confidence to make their dreams a reality and to be unstoppable in life and business.
